

The Ultimate BUSINESS TRAVEL Packing Guide

Embarking on a business trip entails meticulous planning to ensure a seamless, productive and stress-free journey. The team at TravelManor compiled a comprehensive business trip planner tick-list, broken down into essential categories to address before, during, and after your travels.

This curated list aims to streamline your preparations, enhance your experience as a business traveller, or help you when planning a business trip for your boss. From travel and expense management to communication and health, these carefully selected apps and considerations are designed to make your corporate trip more efficient and hassle-free.

COMPILED FOR YOU BY TRAVELMANOR

YOUR CHECKLIST

Travel Documentation

Passport

Ensure that your passport is valid for at least six months beyond your intended return date from an overseas business trip.

Visas

Obtain the required visas for your destination(s) well in advance. Some countries may have specific visa requirements for business travellers. Be sure to check and comply with them.

Travel Insurance

Consider purchasing travel insurance that covers medical emergencies, trip cancellations, and other unforeseen events.

Flight tickets

Have copies of your flight itinerary and electronic and physical copies (in case of no internet accessibility) of your airline tickets.

Hotel reservations

Keep copies of hotel reservations and confirmation details.

Business invitation letter

Carry-On Essentials

Travel documents

- Passport
- Visa(s)
- Boarding pass
- Any necessary business invitations or letters
- Important medical and/or vaccination documents

Laptop & accessories

- Laptop
- Charger
- Portable charger or power bank
- Laptop bag or sleeve

Tablet or e-reader

Tablets are useful for entertainment or reading during the flight.

Headphones

Noise-cancelling headphones can be particularly beneficial for a quiet work environment or rest during the flight.

Notebook & pen

Handy for jotting down important notes or ideas.

Reading materials

Bring business-related materials, magazines, or a book for leisure.

Suitcase Must-Haves

Professional Attire

- Business suits or appropriate professional attire for meetings and events.
- Extra shirts/blouses and/or ties.

Comfortable clothing

- Casual clothing for downtime or travel days.
- Workout clothes if you plan to exercise during your trip.

Footwear

- Comfortable business shoes.
- Casual shoes for downtime or exercise.

Toiletries

- Full-sized toiletries, including shampoo, conditioner, body wash, and skincare products.
- Hairdryer if needed.

Personal Care Items

- Full-sized toothbrush and toothpaste.
- Razor and shaving cream.
- Deodorant and other personal care items.

Medications & supplements

Some countries may require a business invitation letter from the organisation or company you are visiting.

Business trip itinerary

Prepare a detailed travel itinerary, including addresses and contact information for your business meetings and accommodations.

Driver's license

If you plan to rent a car at your destination, ensure that your driver's license is valid and accepted in that country or apply for a temporary foreign driver's license.

Credit cards & cash

Bring internationally accepted credit cards and some local currency for business trip expenses.

Health documentation

Carry any necessary health documentation, such as vaccination certificates or medical records, especially if travelling to areas with specific health requirements.

Customs declaration form

Familiarise yourself with customs regulations and carry any required declaration forms.

Emergency contacts

Carry a list of emergency contacts, including local

Snacks

Healthy snacks to keep you energised during the trip.

Water bottle

Stay hydrated by bringing an empty water bottle to fill up after passing through security.

Personal care items

Travel-sized toiletries (toothbrush, toothpaste, deodorant, etc.)

Facial tissues or wipes

Sanitising wipes

Medications

Carry any necessary medications in your carry-on bag with a copy of the prescription. To be safe ask your doctor or pharmacist to issue you with a document that all the medication, even over-the-counter medication are legitimate.

Change of clothes

A change of clothes, especially if you have an important meeting upon arrival or in case of unexpected delays.

Travel pillow & blanket

Useful for getting some rest during long flights.

Eye mask and earplugs

All necessary prescription medications and supplements. Remember to keep a copy of the prescription packed together with the medication eg. in a zip lock bag.

Electronics

- Laptop and charger.
- Smartphone and charger.
- Power strip if you have multiple devices to charge.

Travel adapters

A multi adapters for different power outlets if travelling internationally.

Travel-sized laundry detergent

If you need to do laundry during your trip.

Travel iron or steamer

Keep your clothes looking neat and professional.

Travel umbrella

Compact and lightweight, in case of unexpected rain.

Collapsible travel bag

Useful for bringing back extra items or souvenirs.

Snacks

Non-perishable snacks for times when meals are not readily available.

contacts and contacts back home.

Travel apps & digital copies

Save digital copies of important documents, such as your passport, visa, and itinerary, on your phone or a secure cloud service. Consider using travel apps for easy access to information.

Business cards

Bring an ample supply of business cards to exchange with colleagues and contacts during your trip.

Power adapters and chargers

If travelling internationally, bring the appropriate power adapters and chargers for your electronic devices.

Local SIM card or international roaming

Consider getting a local SIM card or activating international roaming for your mobile phone to stay connected.

Laptop and work materials

If necessary, bring your laptop and any materials needed for work, presentations, or meetings.

Always check with the relevant authorities and do thorough research on the specific requirements of the

Helpful for getting better sleep on the plane.

Travel adapters & chargers

Adapters for different power outlets and chargers for all your electronic devices.

Business cards

Keep a supply of business cards easily accessible.

Chewing gum or mints

Useful for freshening up during or after the flight. Chewing also helps if your ears tend to pop during off-take or landing.

Travel-sized sewing kit

Handy for quick clothing repairs.

Important contacts list

Write down or have a digital copy of important contacts in case your phone is not accessible.

A comfortable scarf or shawl or lightweight jacket

Can be used for warmth, as a blanket, as a pillow behind your next or as a fashion accessory.

Remember to comply with airline regulations regarding carry-on items and liquids and consider the specific needs of your trip when customizing this list.

Business materials

- Printed copies of important documents.
- Presentation materials if needed.

Backup identification

A photocopy of your passport and other important documents stored separately from the originals.

Extra bag

A foldable or collapsible bag for additional storage or as a carry-on for short trips.

Handheld luggage scale

Useful for avoiding overweight luggage fees on the return trip.

Stain remover wipes

Handy for quick clothing stains.

Remember to consider the climate and specific activities you have planned at your destination when packing, and always check luggage size and weight restrictions imposed by your airline.

In the dynamic world of business travel, being well-prepared is key to success.

As you navigate your upcoming ventures, leverage the power of this travel planner tick-list by TravelManor to stay organised, connected, and focused on your objectives.

For an even smoother experience, consider reaching out to seasoned professionals at TravelManor travel planner agency that can expertly handle the intricacies of planning, leaving you with the freedom to concentrate on your business endeavours. Download the checklist now and embark on your next business trip with confidence or contact our corporate travel planner team for personalised assistance tailored to your unique travel needs. Safe travels!

www.travelmanor.co.za