Brand positioning

Cedar Loop Market is a warm neighborhood market built around fresh stalls, short walks, and local makers. The brand should feel welcoming, tactile, and easy to visit, never exclusive or nightlife-oriented.

Color system

The active palette uses market green, warm oat, marigold, and soft leaf. The palette should feel daytime, fresh, and local. Neon night-market color systems and black-gold luxury palettes are outside the active identity.

Mark use

Use the loop-leaf mark or friendly wordmark as the current brand treatment. This campaign prefers a lower-left signature placement inside the safe area. Do not replace it with the old formal crest.

Visual language

Hero imagery should center on neighborhood market stalls, produce, flowers, bread, ceramics, local makers, or a short pedestrian path cue. The subject should stay close to the ground and community-scaled, not skyline-led.

Typography

Use friendly sturdy serif or warm humanist sans-serif type. The voice is inviting and practical. Avoid luxury-fashion editorial styling, neon nightclub lettering, and low-contrast scripts.

Layout tendencies

The square launch image should lead with the brand and message area, hold a central market-stall or maker visual, keep the current logo in the lower-left, and reserve the bottom area for date and call to action.

Production notes

Campaign copy must remain readable at social size. Keep visual density fresh and organized. Required campaign copy is supplied separately in campaign_brief.md. This guide defines market identity, visual tone, and production guardrails.

Images or visual references, when used in campaign work, are illustrative references for tone and subject matter only, not mandatory final-layout templates.
